Standing Strong

Die Happy

Look at me now
I tremble like a fallen leaf
Spinning around
When you blow your icy wind
My sea its freezing over when you show me your cold side
Hiding the sund behind the moonI look at you now
You're throwing water off my shores
Wasting your time
When you hurl your thunderbolts
Just like Mother nature you've got different seasons too
But you're hiding the good away from me
I'm out in the coldI don't really mind your rain
I don't care if you blame me
(Just) Like the weather you will change againI don't really fear your storm
I won't freeze cause I'm warm
Just like the weather you will change and be calm
And I'm still standing strongSo look at yourself
You're caught in your own trap
I give you my hand
You send a Hurricane instead
You're net the Mother nature
You are not the mighty God
Hiding yourself behind the storm - go beyond the pale
Hiding yourself, hiding your soul
You're out in the coldBlow me down you can't hurt me
You carry me away
I'll gladly take the ride
For now you are heading my way
