In My First Mind

Steve Miller Band

Singing a song of love
Growing each day
Knowing how it's been
Living for todayI wanted to love you, babe
I swear I do know how
To go back is pointless
Understand this nowOur time, it hasn't been too long
It all seems to drift away
No more the past, it's the future
That I'm living for todayAnd if it's not getting you
Where ever you need to go
There's still a place in my heart
If you did not know this is soIn my first mind
You are so fine
All the good things you do
Are in my own timeIn my second mind
I can see you grow
Feel you flow
It moves my soul, yeah
