Justify

Daryl Hall

Baby's gone, said she's movin' on
And tellin' me I ain't comin' along
I thought you said you were satisfied
You've given up on everything we tried for
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
Justify, sacrificing our love
Smoking gun, hold it in your hand
You can't deny, I'm the victim of your plan
Innocence with a guilty side
I don't understand, tell me why, oh, why
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
Justify, sacrificing our love
Tell me why, why you saying goodbye?
Are you saying goodbye
Tell me why, why you saying goodbye?
Are you saying goodbye
Lonely hearts finally find a home
And hen they part like everybody else does
Guess the love meant more to me
Go your way but I can't see, oh why?
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
Justify, sacrificing our love
Tell me why, oh, why
Are you saying goodbye?
Tell me why, tell me why
Are you saying goodbye?
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
Justify, sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love
How can you justify sacrificing our love

Justify, sacrificing our love
