

For To End Yet Again

Arcturus

Full of frequency
an unintelligible roar
of everything ever lived or altogether avoided lifeA storm of voices and backward thoughts through deserts of sand through gutters of shiteDrums and flames our bodies in ruins
and I say my name
without my voiceSpeed increases fucking all up
in a whirling wind
tearing all order apart in order to rebuild orderDon't fight it, you'll only whirl up all mass hysteria in your thousandfold selfPolice, police, police please stop the Euro
from binar bin Laden Io paramount Pan
Io Paradox PanWe lost eachother
we slide unnoticeably
in hallucinatory orbit
around the sun
the black sun
oh black sun
