

Zep Tepi

Birdwu

As a voyeur of aquatica, feels like the walls are going
From a whisper to a waterfall, feels like the sun is holding a static air
In a burial of a garden-egg, feels like im starting to open As skin evolves into a soil-child, into a silhouette of unspoken electric care In the desert of hypnotica, feels like my time has come oh yeah
From a whisper to a waterfall,
feels like the sun is holding a static air
It's all in your head X2
Just stay calm X4
