

Where The Boat Leaves From

Zac Brown Band

There's a place where the boat leaves from
It takes away all your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
Take one part sand and one part sea
And one part shade of a banana tree
And the drinks they're cold and the reggae's hot
And I know this is the place for me
Get away to where the boat leaves from
It takes away all of your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
See the problem is that you're out there
And there's a perfectly good island somewhere
Where a ride that floats and don't grab your coat
You won't need 'em where we are going
Get away to where the boat leaves from
It takes away all of your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
Pick me up, pick me up, pick me up
Put me down, down on the sand where its cool
Put me down, and when I fall off my stool
Put me down, I'll just sleep there till morning comes around
With sunshine and ladies and pina colodas
And Bob Marley songs that are playing
There's a song in my ear that I want you to hear
Soft tropical lips that are singin'
Get away to where the boat leaves from
It takes away all of your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
So get away to where the boat leaves from
It takes away all of your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
So get away to where the boat leaves from
It takes away all of your big problems
You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean
But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
Pick me up, pick me up
Put me down, put me down
I gotta go
Pick me up, pick me up
Put me down
