

We Belong

Def Leppard

Sometimes I feel I don't belong here
Sometimes I just don't feel
I feel so uninvited
A wound that never heals I need a little shelter
Just for a little while
Sometimes I have the silence
Behind a driven smile If you can't see first door
I will roll it away
I will kneel at your throne
Hold my hands up and pray I will hold back the time
Push the oceans aside
Save the day
But I can't be stronger You're all that I am
You're all that I see
The keys to the kingdom
Waiting for me So, don't move it back
Don't hold me down
Just hold me, and don't let go You're all that I am
You're all that I do
