

Veniality (Previously Unreleased Track)

Epica

Searching for what she can't find
For her own peace of mind
She can't forgive, nor forget the past
These ineffable feelings and hurt that last evermore Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past
Don't enthrall yourself, let the penance begin
You've got to open your heart
To see the confinement
Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past
Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past
It seems so futile, forgiveness, your freedom
The present state of veniality
Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past
Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past
Search for the light, and then you'll find
Your own peace of mind
