Xandria

at the temple of black gods i failed again for you - a chilvarous end for a man clandestine enthralling haze a docile sacrifice for your graceresurrect from the ban they put on you fall again - you will - what they foreknew only gods illuminate and just a slave to be is my fateand you will hear me siren's calls of temptation teasing you no limit will be no taboo of imagination i'll fill your voidi will always savour you as i will always be your fool
