Undying Admiration

David Pomeranz

Sometimes late at night
I sit beside our bed
Watching you sleeping so sweetly
I'm almost completely out of my head
Every breath you breathe
Is a work of art
Everytime you sigh just breaks my heart
There's no one in this whole world
Inspires me the way that you do
Undying admiration
Undying admiration
I'll sing it to the night
I'll sing until the light
Undying admiration

And when the morning comes
And a little child appears
Hearing the love in your laughter
Sometimes I just have to hold back the tears

The passion on your face
The depth of your soul
Would inspire any muse to lose control
There's no one in this whole world
That teaches me the way that you do

Undying admiration
Undying admiration
I'll write it on the sky
And tell the world of my
Undying admiration

All my life I've waited for
The kind of love
Keats and Shelley would be jealous of
And it's you baby
You made it all come true baby
Oh, oh

Undying admiration

Undying admiration
I'll write it on the sky
And tell the world of my
Undying admiration

Lyrics submitted by rachel salas.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/