Planting Seeds

dredg

She's to blame I'll erase routine,
With a spark to ignite the flame,
And in this struggle of guilt to tame,
It's freedom I'll obtain,
She tied me up,
Removed my crown,
Bittered all good taste,
Sorry for everything I've done,
I can't deny your stakeLook at what I have found
A seashell in a sea of shells
I'm good at planting my own seeds
To sprout endless hell
It's dark like PoeForgiveness came we embrace the key,
Found water to douse the flame,
We ended our difference of soul and brain,
Forever we have changed,
I've just set out on a brand new race,
Can we keep the pace,
I can't believe what we've become,
I'll leave without a trace.Look at what I have found
A seashell in a sea of shells
I'm good at planting my own seeds
To sprout endless hell
It's dark like Poeyeaah yeeeaaahhh yeaah yeeeaaahhh...ohh ohh ohhLook at what I have found
A seashell in a sea of shells
I'm good at planting my own seeds
To sprout endless hell
It's dark like PoeLeave without a trace, I'll leave without a trace...
