Arure

Yeah

Yeah

Nigga deep in the rhythm, experience speak

Some keepin' the wisdom, the life hustlers seek

I'm seeking it with 'em, I'm dope the streets need me to hit 'em

With some of that

Revolutionary blunted rap

My peoples want hits, I hit it from the back

Under the cherry moon, I hold notes and carry tunes

My guise pack heat enough to bury June, on my feet

I'm getting married soon, walking in the clouds like Mary Bethune

Fumes of a real nigga seep into your room

Or through fifth-teens of the your jeep that you boom

Son so many cats, they call me high noon

Offerings to Osun hoping war is over soon

Guard your grill like George Foreman

Time to build, as far as building I'm the doorman, opening doors

My blood I expose on the floors, tell them the game ain't only the score

Hold on to your life as I carry these styles

To have you tapping your head like Darius Miles

You ain't supposed to rhyme, better off with a clothing line

In this business of pimps, many hoes get signed

Opposed to shine so me holding the blinds

Mixing golden seal and wine, holding a nine

In the age of aquaruis

The water that arrives

To purify the world

Flying through the night

So watch out here he comes

Aquarius

Between churches and liquor stores, my mic leaks

With raps, all over your head like Tweet

Playing with yourself, thinking the game is just wealth

Hot for a minute, watch your name just melt

Same spot where it's joyous, where the pain is felt

As you build and destroy yo remain yourself

They say I'm slept on, now I'm bucking in dreams

And rhyme with the mind of a hustler scheme

Or the struggle of feinds, I flow over water thots as troubled as teens

For the love of the team, trying to double the dream
Be greatful like the church psalm my grandmother sings
I'm rubbing my rings across the domes of clones
Punchlines like Roy Jones with poems
While you and your dogs foam at the mouth
Thinking rap is the only way out
The black human genius will never play out
I take you way out, where you never been before
Been it since birth, sent to replish the Earth
That truck that you roll is like a miniature hearse
I deaded your shit before you finished a verse
From nigga to Gods from bitches to earths
From Nat to Truck Turner that lives in my verse
Realness is an act that you cannot rehearse
Holla back, but listen first, we in the age of aquarius
The water that arrives
To purify the world
Flying through the night
So watch out here he comes
Aquarius
The water that arrives
To purify the world
Flying through the night
So watch out here he comes
Aquarius
Aquarius
Aquarius
