Wasting Time (feat. Katy Steele)

Felix Riebl

Everytime you play the only one,
Everytime you say who's lost has won. Everytime you lay your hands in mine,
We were just wasting time, now we're just wasting time.

Going to the river, get you off my mind,
Everyone says you'll never be mine.
But I'm coming on strong like a hurricane,
I never get off this line,
Am I just wasting time?

Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh

Maybe one day then we won't look back,
Maybe one day before the heart attack.
Maybe one day then we won't look,
Walking where I'm stepping and I won't decide.
I never could talk when you were by my side. Just walking where I'm stepping and I won't decide.

Been living up lately 'cause I can't go on,
Being here baby where the right side's wrong.
And I'm tired of just sinking in the cold tonight.
Feel I'm just wasting time,
God I'm just wasting time.

Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh

Maybe one day then we won't look back,
Maybe one day before the heart attack. Maybe one day then we won't look,
Walking where I'm stepping and I won't decide.
I never could talk when you were by my side. Just walking where I'm stepping and I won't,
Yeah

Maybe one day then we won't look back,

Maybe one day before the heart attack.
Maybe one day then we won't look back.
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
Wooaah oh
Wooaah oh oh oh
