

Gates of Urizen

Bruce Dickinson

As above so below
All things come from the one, now you are the victim
Carried by the wind rooted in the ground
If you want to learn the secrets close your eyes
Ladder falls away at the gates of Urizen
Fallen eagles blaze at the gates of Urizen
Eternal twins are damned at the gates of Urizen
Separate lives begin
In every woman is a man
From the moon come silver ghosts
Spectres of the blood
From my spirit comes the darkness
From the void the crimson fortress rises
At the gates of Urizen the ladder falls away
At the gates of Urizen fallen eagles blaze
At the gates of Urizen eternal twins are damned
At the gates of Urizen separate lives begin
At the gates of Urizen the ladder falls away
At the gates of Urizen eternal twins are damned
At the gates of Urizen separate lives begin
At the gates of Urizen
The gates of Urizen
The gates of Urizen
At the gates
