Don't Forget

Maverick Sabre

You don't want to kiss me anymore,
Now your love's turned round and becomes conditional.
How I long, how I long for the smell of your cocoa butter skin.
Your eyes don't light up like the way they always did,
RosÃ© wine glass with your lipstick on the edge,
Sat here in silence starring at the ends of your cigarettes.Don't forget me, in the morning, when you wake beside somebody else,
And don't regret me, when you fall back in love I hope I made a better sense,
And don't forget me, please darlin' I hope I made a difference,
And I know you left me, and I understand why but just don't forget my love.Brush my lips against the tatoo on your shoulder.
Your little king I love him like a father.
You held me high, so high I don't want to come down,
There's another man I know, it's okay, I understand.
I'm just not the one you want to hold your hand,
You deserve the sky, the stars and everything he has,
Let him love you better than I can.But don't forget me, in the morning when you wake beside somebody else ,
And don't regret me, when you fall back in love I hope I made a better sense,
And don't forget me, please darlin' I know you feel so different,
And I know you left me, and I understand why but just don't forget my love.
