The hunger inside, given to me
Makes me what I am
Always it is calling me
For the blood of man They say, I cannot be this
I am jaded, hiding from the day
I can't bear, I cannot
Tame the hunger in me Oh, I say, I did it
Always searching
You can't fuck with fate
So instead you'll taste my pain The hunger inside, given to me
Makes me feel alive
Always out, stalking prey
In the dark I hide Feeling, falling, hating
Feel like I am fading
Hating life They say, I cannot be this
I am jaded, hiding from the day
I can't bear, I cannot
Tame the hunger in me Oh, I say, I did it
Always searching
You can't fuck with fate
So instead you'll taste my pain You say, your life I'm taking Always bothering me
I can't take this anymore
I'm failing, always smothering me You look down on me
Ain't what you see
Take this gift from me
You will soon become me Nothing seems exciting
Always the same hiding, hiding
It's haunting me, it's haunting me
It's haunting me, it's haunting me
It's haunting me
