

Just For a Moment

Aqualung

Just for a moment
Everything I treasured was gone
Just for a moment
I faced my life alone Oh, how I love you Just for a moment
The world was full of pain
Just for a moment
My luck had finally run out Oh, how I love you The same thing that blew us together
Might blow us apart
So keep a piece of me precious
And close to your heart Just for a moment
All of, of my nightmares came true
Just for a moment
My heart was broken in two Oh, how I need you
Oh, how I'd miss you
Oh, how I love you
