

Rome

Jess Godwin

Prophecy,
You lied to me
I thought I'd be
Safe in the city

Carry on,
You vagabond
It won't be long Iâ€™m
Taking the city
Taking the city
Rome

One final breath
To the death for Rome
You were never mine to own
(Rome)
Your heart of stone
You were never home
You were never mine to ownâ€œ!Oooo
(You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine)

Honesty
You fell for me
Thought youâ€™d be
Safe in the city
Look beyond your
Marble walls
Iâ€™ll burn them all
Iâ€™m taking the city
Taking the city
Rome

One final breath (Rome)
To the death for Rome
You were never mine to own
(You were never mine)

(Rome)
Your heart of stone (Rome)
You were never home
You were never mine to ownâ€|Oooo
(You were never mine
You were never mine)

You were never mine to ownâ€|
(You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine
You were never mine)
(repeat)

One final breath
To the death for Rome
You were never mine to own
One final breath
To the death for Rome
You were never mine to own

One final breath
To the death for Rome
You were never mine to own
One final breath
To the deathâ€|

[NOTE: not sure if she says "to the death" or "til the death"]
