Vital Signs

Alorion

Here I stand at the edge of forever
With the blackness swarming and swelling
And coursing through your veins
You wanna close the book of the story youâ€™re telling
And finally end all your shame-ridden pain

Endure this storm thatâ€™s drowned all our senses
Breathe in this torment you call a life
Inhale ambition, Let go of anguish
Exhale affliction into the sky
And I feel so alive
Forging my worth
From my surroundings
Never retreat

And here you stand
At the edge of Forever
Staring into the depths below
Hoping to catch just a momentâ€™s reflection
Of the man that you used to know

Endure this storm thatâ€™s drowned all our senses
Breathe in this torment you call a life
Inhale ambition, Let go of anguish
Exhale affliction into the sky
And I feel so alive
Forging my worth
From my surroundings
Never retreat
Oh, I feel so alive
Forging my worth
From my surroundings
Never retreat

With the roads weâ€™ll pave
We will find our way to rise
