

Right In The Middle

Joan Jett And The Blackhearts

If you always do what youve always done
Youll always get the same old stuff
Life can treat you good, then turn as cold as ice
And believe me when I tell you
This thing called love, for sure is like most things in life Not all bad, not all good
(Its just something that I believe)
Not all cold, not all hot
(Yeah, I like that, not all hot) Not all bitter, not all sweet
(Sounds all right to me)
So dont miss all the good, waiting for the best
Theres still happiness, right in the middle Perfect love sounds real nice
But that never seemed to happen
With any relationship of mine
It was always up and down, in then out And after the last goodbye
I still didnt know what it was all about
You get disappointed if it aint bliss all the time
And you get so annoyed
It cant feel the same every night, love it Not all bad, not all good (Im tryin to tell you that its)
Not all high, not all low
(Not all high and not all low) Not all heaven, not all hell
And as far as I, as far as I can tell
Its not some prize you win
You dont have a thing to prove
Just enjoy the groove right in the middle Cause Ive learned when it comes to love
Its the exact same reality
Thats why they say, Que sera, sera
Which means, whatever's gonna be is gonna be Whatever's gonna be is gonna be
Whatever's gonna be is gonna be Not all bad, not all good
(I need somebody to understand)
Not all sunshine, not all rain
(You know that too much of a good thing is really no good) Not all laughter, not all tears
(Im only trying to tell you)
To let your good times roll, keep your self control
And theres a lotta soul, right in the middle Right in the middle
In the middle, in the middle
Right in the middle
Right in the middle Its right in there, baby

Don't you know?

Don't you know?

Right in the middle In the middle, in the middle, in the middle

Right in the middle

Right in the middle Middle, middle, middle

Right in the middle
