Ceremony

Doro Pesch

So here is the ritualI can't tell you what I go through
I've been through heaven and hell for you
All night, all night long
Satin dreams all covered in sweatWhen I wake, hot to the touch
I swear to god, you'll be the death of me yetYou are my ceremony
You are my ceremony
You are my ceremonyNow here we are, both skin to skin
Your body sacred, we're about to begin
All night, all night long
Watch the moon, let it drop from the sky
Understand I might draw first blood
But I won't sting like the rattlesnake's biteOne day you'll feel it like I do
A fire deep in the heart so true
If I take you, understand
I might explode like a bomb in your handCHORUS :So what should I say Is it the ancient dance of lovers
Is it the comin' rain
