

Gold

Marie Hines

GoldGold

Like the stars that fill the sky

Like the way I feel when I hold youGold

Like the ring that's on my hand

And the promises you kept

I hold toI was lost within the largest ocean

I was buried beneath the darkest deep

Of all the riches and the simple fortunes

You braved the depths for meGold

In the quiet of the dark

In the caverns of my heart

You shone throughMy Gold

You shimmer in the light

To know is half the fight

And I know youI was lost within the largest ocean

I was buried beneath the darkest deep

Of all the riches and the simple fortunes

You braved the depths for me
