

Caught In a Spin

Andy Bell

Wouldn't you like to see me baby
Is all that you seem to know
My heart is on the ceiling baby
I hang on the ball and chain You're such a sweet boy
My fascination
Lie in the shade and do it
World domination
Your revelation
Keep satisfied and chew it Smoke inhalation
My heart beating like a drum
Now I'm caught in a spin
Live is a sin
And I won't show it
Until tonight
And Brother what can I do
But throw off my shoes?
Give us some lovin'
Why don't you try? As I walk down the street
Burn up this heat
I sweat all over
From head to toe
'Cause the future is dead
Full steam ahead
I'll can your laughter
And pass it on
Look up and dial the number baby
It's all but a freaky show
Lock out I'm diving under honey
Won't let your cover blow You're such a sweet boy
My fascination
Lie in the shade and do it
World domination
Your revelation
Keep satisfied and chew it Your cheap suggestions honey
Like bubbles in champagne Now I'm caught in a spin
Live is a sin
And I won't show it
Until tonight
And Brother what can I do

But throw off my shoes?
Give us some lovin'
Why don't you try?As I walk down the street
Burn up this heat
I sweat all over
From head to toe
I'll can your laughter
And pass it onI'm locking up inside
Knock on the wood
Everlasting your tears away
As I throw down the stone
And Head for the beach
Don't you know it
I'll drift away
