Nobody Is Free

Leftover Crack

You sit down on your brother's bed
And drink a beer and breathe the air
He'll punch you as you're rolling past
The junkyard that is full of ash
Making sure you get the door
Now real weak and in withdrawal
Like Germany in 33
And right said that...Nobody Is Free!Blood secretes a bitter age
And hides you from the burning rage
They'll put you in and stand up
And drink your drink - a toxic cup
You feel the itching in your eye
You've been bit by another lie
Like Germany in '33
Right said that...Nobody Is Free!
