Dig

Kristy Hanson

Where we've been? Where do we go?
We had no answers to these questions, you know
Where do we stand? When do we fall
We've no direction or conviction at all
Now the more we want to blame
Leaves us more to fix
So hey, hey baby, do we dig on that?
Or hey, hey baby, do we dig on this?
Who do we call? When do we scream?
We're all contagious by these breaths that we breathe
Where do we steal? When do we pay?
The winds of truth, they ain't blowing our way, yeah
Now the more we want to change
Leaves us more to miss
So hey, hey baby, do we dig on that?
Or hey, hey baby, do we dig on this?
And the more we want to blame
Leaves us more to fix
So hey, hey baby, do we dig on that?
Or hey, hey baby, do we dig on this?
We say we're up then we say we're down
We say we're up then we say we're down
We say we're up then we say we're down
We say we're up then we say we're down
We say we're up then we say we're down
We say we're up then we say we're down
Now the more we want to change
Leaves us more to miss
So hey, hey baby, do we dig on that?
Or hey, hey baby, do we dig on this?
And the more we want to blame
Leaves us more to fix
So hey, hey baby, do we dig on that?
Or hey, hey baby, do we dig on this?
