This Evening's Great Excuse

Seven Mary Three

Time will pack a bag on you, my love
Organize, re-organize your luck
Pretty face, a pretty smile
A pretty shame, you can't defile
The message you have made for them to seeAnd it will be, and it will be HYPOCRISY, hypocrisyThis evening's great excuse is this
To make your peace and make a list
Of everything that's trivial and wideHandshake man, how could you be?
A sweeter, softer, gentler king
Spread out for every queen to seeAnd it will be, and it will be
HYPOCRISY, hypocrisy
