Hear Me Now (Acoustic)

Framing Hanley

Well, I swear that's you and god, we've been down this road before
That the guilt's no good and it only shames us more
And the truths that we all tried to hide
Are so much clear when it's not our lives, we don't face the blameWon't you, get on your knees
Believe, have faith
In this lie with us allNow, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well, I'm calling out to you
Can you hear me now?Well, it's not a rebellion when you're selling out
To another fashion salesman
Our promising lives are full of empty promises
Temptation's falling and calling you home again
Well, I'm sorry if we've let you downWon't you, get on your knees
Believe, have faith
In this lie with us allNow, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well, I'm calling out to you
Oh, can you hear me now?Now, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well, I'm calling out to you
Oh, can you feel me now?What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
Well, what's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?Now, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well, I'm calling out to youNow, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Now, my body's on the floor
And I am callingNow, my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well, I'm calling out to you

Songwriters
MCDUFFEE, JONATHAN LUKE/NIXON, KENNETH W./VEST, STEVEN CHRISTOPHER/WOOTTEN, BRANDON CHRISTOPHERPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/