

God Pounds His Nails

Fozzy

Well I wonder bout the hunger
That I've felt inside
Forced changes causing longing
I gave my will to survive
Don't wait for tomorrow
Make it today
You'll never find a better time to lean on your faith
So drop to your knees
Before it's too late
And reach up to the sky
Hey Hey Hey
Like a thunderbolt from Heaven
Swinging that hammer
You know that God He pounds his nails
One...Two...Three
When that drum beats up in Heaven
Swinging that Hammer
You know that God He pounds his nails
Seven wishes unchained madness
Paid the price for a dream

Fates warning
Forever thinking
God decides sight unseen
Don't wait for tomorrow
Make it today
You'll never find a better time to lean on your faith
So drop to your knees
Before it's too late
And reach up to the sky
Hey Hey Hey
Like a thunderbolt from Heaven
Swinging that hammer
You know that God He pounds his nails
One...Two...Three
When that drum beats up in Heaven
Swinging that Hammer
You know that God He pounds his nails
Then I stop and look and die

And never have to wonder why
I'm screaming but I remember that
God pounds his nails.
