The Prince's Bed

Adam Green

If there's a heart inside your eye
If there's a clock inside your head
If there's a girl outside your bed
Put your face in my placeMy head is falling off my head
And I don't want to see clear againEveryone's talking about Jesus
Everyone's talking about Jesus
Everyone's talking about Jesus
Everyone's fucking my princessGoodnight to my new dead wife
Goodnight to my Nazi friends
I'm standing on the tip of my stinking shipHey, princess over there
Why you sitting over there
When you've got a warm spot to share?In the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
In the prince's bedOh, I know you've thought about it
And I knew you wanna have it
Now I always have my cameraIn the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
In the prince's bed
