

Without a Doubt

Venture

I'm feeling the pressure, taking over me
Regretting a promise, that I will never leave
To hide all this anger,
To leave this all behind
I know I've been her once,
Because I've told this story
a thousand times

I'm letting go
and I give up this time
You fooled me once but you can't fool me twice
I gave you more and more,
but your chances have run out
I gave you more and more
Now it's over
I'm gone
Without a Doubt

A desperate measure, is all I have in me
I've tried to ignore it,
But I was too blind to see
To hide all this anger,
To leave this all behind
I know I've been here once,
Because I've told this story
a thousand times

and I give up this time
You fooled me once but you can't fool me twice
I gave you more and more
But your chances have run out
I gave you more and more,
Now it's over
I'm gone
I'm gone

Without a Doubt

You canâ€™t stop me,
No, you canâ€™t stop me
You canâ€™t stop me
From leaving this time

and I give up this time
You fooled me once but you can't fool me twice
I gave you more and more,
Now itâ€™s over
Well Iâ€™m gone

You canâ€™t stop me,
You canâ€™t stop me
