In This Moment

The Birthday Massacre

When I was younger
The days all seemed to last
So much longer
But that was once upon a timeThere was no one to remind us
A shadow waits behind us
To steal our breath awayIn this moment
We pretend we're all that matters
We're endless
Do you think this is forever?
Pretending
Believing that this haven
This moment is endlessYou run from your shadow
And wait here in the dark
For tomorrow
As the days turn into nightsWhen you're looking in the mirror
You can't ignore your fear
There's nothing on the other sideIn this moment
We pretend we're all that matters
We're endless
Do you think this is forever?
Pretending
Believing that this haven
This moment is endlessIn this moment
We pretend we're all that matters
We're endless
Do you think this is forever?
Pretending
Believing that this haven
This moment is endless
