Stuck

Ovens

Stuck inside a day to day routine.

I don't know what it means, feel like a machine.

There is nothing I can offer you, I don't have a thing to say to you this time.

I can feel the days are passing by.

But I do not see, 'cause i'm half asleep.

There is nothing I can offer you, you should be with someone who's good to you this time.
