Drunk Again

Left Alone

Well I'm trying to stay sober but I'm drunk again
On and on with the memories of you
Well I'm trying and I'm trying but I'm drunk again
On and on theirs nothing I can doWell I'm trying and trying but I'm drunk again
Emergency call coming through the radio
Every day is the same I'm the only one to blame
And all the times I wish I was with youAnd on and on it goes
And somethings just aren't true
And everyday is the same ever since I last saw youWell I'm trying to stay sober but I'm drunk again
On and on with the memories of time
Well I'm trying and I'm trying but I'm drunk again
On and on of when you were mineWell I'm trying and I'm trying but I'm drunk again
Emergency call coming through your radio
Every days the same
I'm the only one to blame
And the times I wish I was with youAnd on and on it goes
And somethings just aren't true
And everyday is the same ever since I last saw you
