

World Horizon

The Away Days

For all those broken tones of lawn
A story of the man who cried wolf
You know it's really hard to feel
When lovable may not be here
So every time you do, please don't Feels like the world is dreaming
Feels like the world horizon
Can't be really sure you're on
You'll be going down
For all those broken tones of lawn
Who would have thought that you'd be so far from home?
You know it's really hard to feel
When lovable may not be here
And every time you do it, please don't
