I Can See A Liar

Oasis

Baby, the time is right
To tell it all like it is
And now that I feel God like
There's nothing that can't be kissed
The name of a lonely soul
Is scratched into my brain
He thought he was King Creole
Until he found out
Till he found outHe sits up on a throne
He lives a sleazy lie
But he's all alone again, againI can see a liar
Sitting by the fire
Trouble in his heart
Laughing at the thought
Coming as he goes
Into overdose
I wonder what he feels to meBaby, the time is right
To tell it all like it is
And now that I feel God like
There's nothing that can't be kissedHe sits up on a throne
He lives a sleazy lie
But he's all alone again, againI can see a liar
Sitting by the fire
Trouble in his heart
He's laughing at the thought
Coming as he goes
Into overdose
I wonder what he feels to meBaby, you're a liar
Sitting by the fire
Trouble in your heart
You're laughing at the thoughtYeah baby, you're a liar
Sitting by the fire
Trouble in your heart
You're laughing at the thought
Coming as you go
Into overdose
I wonder what you think of me
