All On Me

The Briggs

So your battle is over
To us the war has just begun
Another soldier surrendered
But we'll fight the war and win at all costsYou couldn't take all the madness
You couldn't take all the pain
Didn't know what we were fighting for
You made me realize it's allIt's all on me
Why'd you give up the fight?Because of your surrender
We're behind enemy lines
You didn't just leave your brothers
When you fled you left your honor behind
