Shake That Tree (2015)

Saga

Itchy fingers reaching for the sky
Our hands are talkin', I know it's no surpriseYou go your way, I'll go my way
It's no surprise
You go your way, I'll go my wayNothing's different, nothing's changed
One man's failure is just one man's fameYou go your way, I'll go my way
No nothing's changed
You go your way, I'll go my wayOne small step another leap for mankind
Another case of blind men leading the blind
One man's poison is another man's cure
Should we call this progress, I'm not sureShake that tree
You know it's all comin' down to me
Shake that tree
'Cause it was always right there in front of meYou have the hammer, don't let it drop
You see it falling in your every thoughtYou go your way, I'll go my way
Your every thought
You go your way, I'll go my wayIn the distance a child cries
You go your way, I'll go my way
But you will try, shake that tree
You know it's all comin' down to meShake that tree
'Cause it was always right there in front of me
Shake that tree
You know it's all comin' down to me
Shake that tree
'Cause it was always right there in front of me
