Stay

Eyeshine

If we fade before the light and we lose the will to fight
Will you stay here by my side and see it through?
There isn't much for us to gain, but I trust in you the same
I pray we never have to leave or say goodbye

'Cause I am not afraid
I've seen the worst this life will throw and I can take it
And I'll push it all away
If at the end of the day you are standing with me, who can break us?

As I witness the rust and leaves, a simple breeze envelopes me
The mess we made appears so foreign now
I haven't said it far enough, though I meant it through the rough
This uneven road we shared is worth the wear

'Cause I am not afraid
I've seen the worst this life will throw and I can take it
And I'll push it all away
If at the end of the day you are standing with me, what can shake us?

I know there's nothing that we can't do
I know there's nothing that we can't do

I am not afraid
I've seen the worst this life will throw and I can take it
And I'll push it all away
If at the end of the day you are standing with me, who can break us?

If we fade before the light and we lose the will to fight
Will you stay here by my side and see it through?
