Let the World Burn

Until the End

Forget the past and your
Bound to repeat
I won't let myself fall to pieces
Forget my friends
Or lie to myself
I won't torture
Myself this wayI choose to live a life of Little understanding
In this world
I'm seen as the wrong
I don't except for
Any compassion
I need nothing but myself
And the truthWe all, are united by the fact that
There's no room for us and we'll
All fade away
I'm trying, to come to terms
With all of this and find out a
Way to explain to myslef
Why is still come around-living
This life has scarred my soul
But it's made me,
Stronger than before,
I'm able to determine my own fateWhile the rest of the World burns
