No One Knows

Lennon

Verse:
Run my hands over you under the table
No one really knows what were capable of
No one really has to know
Under a streetlight, under the darkness
Youre holding my heart, youre holding my hand
No one really has to understandPreChorus:
Youre looking through me and I see you
I know every thought in your mind
God knows I wish they were mine
If we only had the time, to make them mineChorus:
Nobody knows the things that I know
Nobody sees the things that I seeVerse:
Walking through a crowd you come up on me
Run your arms over mine
How long has it been, I remember when
Torn by two worlds by someones opinion
Wondering who really has the say
Who cares any wayPreChorus:
Youre looking through me and I see you
I know every thought in your mind
God knows I wish they were mine
If we only had the time, to make them mineChorus:
Nobody knows the things that I know
Nobody sees the things that I see
Nobody feels the pain that I hide
Inside out, outside in, deep insideVerse:
Pictures of the dead, sounds of the living
Are the only things I ever seem to be hearing
When will it end
Flowers are wilting waiting to die
Theyre a picture of my own very life
God this silence is too loudPreChorus:
Youre looking through me and I see you
I know every thought in your mind
God knows I wish they were mine
If we only had the time
Youre looking through me and I see you
I know every thought in your mind

God knows I wish they were mine
If we only had the time, to make them mineChorus:
Nobody knows the things that I know
Nobody sees the things that I see
Youll never go to this hell where Ive gone
Youll never know, youll never know
The thing that Ive doneOutro:
Run my hands over you under the table
Run my hands
Run my hands over you under the table
