

Live For (feat. Drake)

The Weeknd

Getting sober for a day, got me feeling too low
They tryna make me slow down, tryna tell me how to live
I'm about to lose control (lose control)
Well they can watch me fuck it up all in one night
I'm in my city in the summer, camo'd out
Leather bootied, kissing bitches in the club
They wanna threesome (threesome)
Then some (then some)
Spend whatever come in, fuck an income
Me and my niggas we ain't never going broke
And you, have to
Do it all just to know where it gets you
Living dreams we can never afford
Now we sitting in the back saying This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for Yeah
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I'd die for
This the shit you can't fake dawg
This the shit you need God for
How long do you think
It's gon' take for y'all to fall?
That's a serious question 'cause I'm seriously questioning all of y'all
Been touring the world man, I've done spent racks in all the malls
And they know my story, flaws and all, I still got plaques hanging wall to wall dawg
She just offered a strip tease, but she don't look like Demi Moore
Hips all on 45, waist all on 24
And it's all love in the city, still scream XO, when that Henny pour
But I'm that boy, not just any boy, what the fuck you think that I'm in it for

Roll up in that thing, got hoes like Prince, but they know I'm king
Chubbs might hold that thing, if he get caught, he'll be home by spring
Things I shouldn't share, I mean for the sake of my career
I'm not trynna stunt, I'm just tellin' you the truth, I swear
This the shit that I live for with the people I'd die for This the shit you can't fake dawg, this the shit you need God for
This that shit we really gotta talk about in person
There's some shit I need to work on, but I know you see me working
Nigga, champagne
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for
This the shit that I live for
This the shit that I live for
With the people I'd die for
