

Bluebeard

The Late B.P. Helium

A boy, never had a loss
He swore he would never bare a cross Inside him, inside him

Two girls, they had a ball
They went, to a shopping mall
To guide them, so many things (so many things) Make up a long, make up a long, up a long, make up a long, up a long and in the end, who will know it's palm (know it's palm x5) who will tally up those things people call beside them, inside them

inside them
