

Other Side

Family Portrait

Solitary views of the other side of a plane weâ€™ve yet to know

Will we ever get the chance to walk alone

In this life or when we find out that weâ€™re home

What will we hear there

Love me, love me

Why donâ€™t you know me, know me

Hold me, hold me

And trust me, trust me

Inhabitations through

I can finally forget a past you say you never knew

I reach my hands to the sky

Love me, love me

Why donâ€™t you know me, know me

Hold me, hold me

And trust me, trust me

Love me, love me

Why donâ€™t you know me, know me

Hold me, hold me

And trust me, trust me

Thereâ€™s a time and place

An unknown region of space

I can meet you all there

Throw your arms in the air

Hands towards the sky

And youâ€™ll hear

Hands towards the sky

And youâ€™ll hear

Love me, love me

Why donâ€™t you know me, know me

Hold me, hold me

And trust me, trust me

Love me, love me

Why donâ€™t you know me, just know me

Hold me, hold me
And trust me, trust me
