Bloodletter

Saxon

You never see him out in the sunlight
He's waiting for the shadows to fall
Moving under cover of darkness
Searching for a victim to maul
Lock up your doors tightly
Keep all your windows shot
On this night the blood will flow
Flow before the dawnIn the night wrap up tight
Vampire strikes
Bloodletter
Scream in the night keep out of sightRoaming in the valley of darkness
Never moving far from the grave
Waiting at the edge of your nightmare
Seeking out the blood that he graves
So if you hear a tap on your window
You know that you're time has come
On this night the blood will flow
Flow before the dawn(Repeat *)
