

Preachers (Parody of "Peaches")

ApologetiX

Movin' through the country,
gonna see a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna meet me a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna hear a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna see a lot of preachers.
Preachers come good and bad.

They are ordinary men.
It's a factor we must count.
And if some have been led astray,
That don't mean that they're all fakes.
Some still can point you to the Way.

Movin' through the country,
gonna see a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna meet a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna hear a lot of preachers.
Movin' through the country,
gonna see a lot of preachers.
A couple scandals happened,
A real short list.

Yes they caught some evangelists with greed and fraud and woman.

Point my fingers back to Christ.
Take a little look at a sinless life.
Base your stand on Christianity on His, not mine.
Millions of preachers, preachin' to me.
Which ones believers? Which preach for greed?
Philippians teaches, verse 1:18,
If they really preach Jesus, they're preachy keen.
But look out!

Millions of preachers, preachin' to me.
Which ones believers? Which preach for greed?
Philippians teaches, verse 1:18,
If they really preach Jesus, they're preachy keen.
But look out!
