If You'll Let Me Love You

Smalltown Poets

I don't know what to do to ease your mind
I don't have the perfect word to make it fine
I'm not so qualified for sympathy
Still I am not without lovePsalm number four falls on your grieving ear
Yes, I believe the peace of Christ is near
And I am here in His name
You'd do the same, you'd do the sameIf you'll let me close
Closer than a brother
If you'll let me love you
We'll sit here and cryIf you'll let me love
(Let me love you)Never failing, ever hoping
Seeking to preserve
It always is giving
Often beyond wordsAnd when there's nothing left to say
Love has a voice
In sorrow and in heartache
There's a greater joyI don't know what to do to ease your mind
Whatever pain you have I'd take as mineIf you'll let me love
(Let me love you)
