I Believe In Me

Illdisposed

Not an eye was dry
In that second I called my defeat
All the friends have lied
But at least I'm not strapped to my seatHey go away
Don't want you to stayHey go away
I Believe in me[chorus]
You slept when I was awake
It's me who rule the morning
Don't that just make you pissedWhen you moved away
Moved away with a head full of shame
That's the way to play
At least when you're part of my game
