

Gotta Get Mean

Blues Traveler

In this vale of toil and sin
You're stuck in a race that you just cant win
Just take a look around and it's so obscene
But that's the way it is, so you gotta get mean
Don't waste your time wonderin' why
'Cause the only thing you know is that someday you'll die
You gotta get tough, you gotta get lean
But the best of all you got to gotta get mean
You give me an inch and I'll blow you away
It's part of this dangerous game that we play
You'd do the same if you'd seen what I'd seen
So, Cest la vie, mon cherie, ya gotta get mean
You got to gotta get mean
