

I Said It

Nonpoint

I said it once I'll say it again if I really want
I'm saying everything I wanna if I really want
I'll say it once I'll say it twice I'll say it right into your face
Take a step back, I gotta lot more I gotta say
You're dumb as doorstoppers, wait, you're as dumb as rocks (GO)
Dumb as Forrest Gump is and you really need to stop
Knock you over with a statement that will shock
Your mother should've left you in the balls of your pops
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear and I needed to say it
I'm not playing, I just said it
No I don't regret it
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing anymore
You started a fucking war
I didn't like you from the start
If you disappear tomorrow
The world and I would throw a party
There'll be no sorrow
Be no tears, be no horror
No funeral tomorrow
People lined up for you laying flowers
Atop your artificial body crying artificial blues
You artificial minded asshole times two
You're nothing special, there's a hundred-thousand yours
In every single city that you think belongs to you
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care

I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing, I just said it
No I don't regret it

I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing anymore
You wanna shout out bullets alone?
You wanna shout out bullets alone?
You wanna shout out bullets
Wanna shout out bullets
Wanna shout out bullets alone?
Wanna shout out bullets alone?
You wanna shout out bullets alone?
You're nothing special, there's a hundred-thousand yous
In every single city that you think belongs to you
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing, I just said it
No I don't regret it
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it
I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing anymore
You started a fucking war
I said it
I said it
I'm saying that I said it

I admit it I don't care
I don't care I don't regret it
You needed to hear it and I needed to say it
I'm not playing anymore
