

Ain't Nobody Got It Easy

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

It's a strange and lovely world
It don't make no sense to me
There are few things I am sure of
Ain't nobody got it easy
Ain't nobody got it easy Standing on the edge of a confession
Waiting for the sorrow to break
Too many reasons, too many questions
Ain't nobody got it easy
Ain't nobody got it easy Grass is always greener on the other side
Looking for avenues to freedom
I have yet to find someone satisfied
Ain't nobody got it easy
Ain't nobody got it easy
One man's trash is another man's treasure
One man's pain is another man's pleasure
Trying to climb down your family tree
Ain't nobody got it easy
Ain't nobody got it easy
Ain't nobody got it easy
